RECEIVED YOUR ATAR? MAKE WHAT'S NEXT COUNT

Learn everything you need to know about the Change of Preference process from receiving your ATAR to re-ordering preferences!

Now that you have received your ATAR, now is time to prepare yourself for what your options you may have during the Change of Preference period! Whether you have done better than you thought or need to look for a back-up plan, we've got you covered!

In this session, we will:

- Explain the Change of Preference process
- Give you a breakdown on what you need to know about VTAC
- Discuss different pathway options you may have if your ATAR and scores don't go to plan
- Explain how to re-order preferences and what to consider
- Give you the opportunity to ask our speakers any questions you may have

This is a perfect session if you've just finished year 12 and are looking to commence a course at RMIT.

- Talk to people who already work in an industry you are interested in e.g., Health care, Trades, Education.
- Work experience

What are Pre-apprenticeships?

Pre-apprenticeships are entry level training which can provide a pathway into the industry of your choice.

Benefits of undertaking a Pre-apprenticeship

- Find out whether a particular industry is right for you, without committing to a full apprenticeship
- Undertaking a pre-apprenticeship that includes work experience will help with your chances of finding work, by giving you direct experience to put on your resume
- Develop basic on-the-job skills and some industry-specific skills
- The provider you are doing a pre-apprenticeship with may be able to help you find an employer
- Some employers, particularly in the trade industries, have a preference for people who have completed a pre-apprenticeship. They see the initiative as providing a good grounding in basic skills and workplace awareness
- You may receive credit for the study completed, which could shorten the time it takes to complete a full apprenticeship.
