ACCESS MELBOURNE

If you are a domestic student applying for an undergraduate degree at the Uni of Melbourne, you may be eligible for additional consideration under their Access Melbourne scheme. Each of the Access Melbourne categories take into consideration the unique circumstances that may have impacted your final secondary school results – financial hardship, a medical condition, or even your location. Mature-aged students and Indigenous and Torres Strait Islander applicants may also be eligible.

When you submit an Access Melbourne application your personal circumstances are taken into account when your undergraduate course application is assessed. This means you could be eligible for guaranteed entry to some of their participating bachelor degrees, or you may receive a place in your preferred course even if your ATAR is below the published minimum (subject to meeting all individual course prerequisites).

How to apply

To apply for Melbourne Access, you must:

- submit a VTAC course application and include your preferred University of Melbourne course/s in your preference list
- complete a VTAC Special Entry Access Scheme (SEAS) application including any required documentation

For further information visit:

<https://study.unimelb.edu.au/how-to-apply/special-entry-access-schemes/access-melbourne-undergraduate>

Did you know that you can apply for Universities/TAFEs interstate?

New South Wales/ACT, South Australia, Western Australia, and Queensland each have their own application centres. Similar to the VTAC system in Victoria they handle all University applications in the state, and some TAFE applications.

UAC – NSW and ACT – www.uac.edu.au

SATAC – South Australia and the NT – www.satac.edu.au

TISC – Western Australia – www.tisc.edu.au

QTAC – Queensland – www.qtac.edu.au

Tasmania – University of Tasmania (UTAS) www.utas.edu.au – apply direct

TAFE – www.myskills.gov.au/ to explore courses and institutes.
